A photograph of two Negroni cocktails. The top cocktail is served in a classic martini glass, filled with a dark red liquid and garnished with a slice of orange peel. The bottom cocktail is served in a heavy, cut-crystal rocks glass, filled with ice, a dark red liquid, and garnished with a slice of orange peel. Both glasses are placed on a dark, mosaic-patterned tray with a wooden border. A small silver spoon with a drop of liquid on it lies on the tray next to the rocks glass. The background is a light, textured surface.
